

As citizens we strongly object to FCC's controlling tactics which deny the public information and input Re: Media Ownership rules. The airwaves belong to the public. The conglomeration of the media and restricting of local programming are eliminating independent reporting which is detrimental to the viewing public. Shame on you!